ILLUSIONS AND STRINGS

In our so-called Democracies, we witness the pulling of strings, two-faced politicians and leaders, false promises, and most importantly, the creation of illusions. The Volk is not as free as they are promised to be in our Democracies, rather the Volk is chained down by the Jew's lies. Every couple of years we are promised change, prosperity, peace and so forth. However, is there change? No—there is only change in the figure, not in the agenda! In fact, our Democracies only hinder our nations and our Volk. The common man is no longer truly represented; he is only used as a tool to gain popularity amongst the Volk during elections. The lies implemented amongst the Volk by Democracy are like a wooden wall with cracks: it will contain most of the lies, but the truth will still seep through. ''We have helped ourselves, creating real things, not illusions.''

—Joseph Goebbels, speech at the Gau East Hanover rally in Harburg (Bavaria)
